

 DAILĖS ISTORIJOS STUDIJOS
ART HISTORY STUDIES
LIETUVOS KULTŪROS TYRIMŲ INSTITUTAS
LITHUANIAN CULTURE RESEARCH INSTITUTE

Art and Artistic Life

during the Two World Wars

Vilnius, 2012

UDK 7(474.5)(091)
Ar-171

Edited by

Giedrė Jankevičiūtė, Laima Laučkaitė

Editorial board:

Prof. Dr. Giedrė Jankevičiūtė (Lithuanian Culture Research Institute)

Dr. Rūta Janonienė (Vilnius Art Academy)

Dr. Liudas Jovaiša (Vilnius University)

Dr. Laima Laučkaitė (Lithuanian Culture Research Institute)

Ass. Prof. Dr. Giedrė Mickūnaitė (Vilnius Art Academy)

Dr. Aistė Paliušytė (Lithuanian Culture Research Institute)

Reviewed by

Ass. Prof. Dr. Linara Dovydaitytė, Ass. Prof. Dr. Arūnas Streikus

Language editor

Joseph Everatt

Design by

Elona Marija Ložytė

Layout by

Daiva Mikalainytė

Supported by

The Research Council of Lithuania (project No LIT-10034)

Recommended by

The Scientific Board of the Lithuanian Culture Research Institute

© Lithuanian Culture Research Institute, 2012

ISSN 1822-2285

ISBN 978-9955-868-53-8

Contents

Introduction 7

PART I

ART AND ARTISTIC LIFE DURING THE FIRST WORLD WAR

Kristiāna Ābele

Out from Behind the Fireplace. The Progress of Latvian National Emancipation in Art Life during the First World War 14

Miklós Székely

Art Exhibitions Abroad as a Communication Strategy: The Case of Hungary between 1914 and 1918 37

Lijana Šatavičiūtė

A Vilnius Diary: Lithuanian Fine Crafts during the First World War 56

Stella Pelše

The First World War and its Aftermath in Latvian Writing on Art 71

Elena Kulchinskaya

The Protection of Architectural Monuments in Russia during the First World War 88

Kai Artinger

Giotto, Michelangelo, Raphael and the First World War: William Orpen's Picture of a 'Simple Soldier Man's' Death 103

Laima Laučkaitė

The Image of an Occupied City: Walter Buhe's Vilnius of the First World War 121

Irina Pronina

Futurist Battles and the First World War. Pavel Filonov between 1914 and 1919 141

Eduards Kļaviņš

Patriotic Rhetoric and the Grim Realities of the First World War in Latvian Art: The Case of Jāzeps Grosvalds 161

PART II

ART AND ARTISTIC LIFE DURING THE SECOND WORLD WAR

Jonathan Black

Strident Supermen? Constructions of British Masculinity and the Image of the Hero in the Second World War Portraiture of Eric Kennington (1888–1960) 178

Vojtěch Lahoda

Living in Peace? Degenerate Art and Czech Modernism in the Protectorate of Bohemia and Moravia 203

Anna Pravdová

Czech Artists who Fled to France during the Second World War and their Cultural Resistance in Paris 217

Milan Pech

Historicist Trends in Czech Art during the Second World War 231

Giedrė Jankevičiūtė

Intimism in Lithuanian Art during the Second World War 246

Kristina Jõekalda

Architectural Monuments as a Resource: Reworking Heritage and Ideologies in Nazi-Occupied Estonia 273

Jānis Kalnačs

Artists in Latvia under the Nazi Occupation. War, Occupation and Power 301

Rasa Antanavičiūtė

Urban Development in Vilnius during the Second World War 319

Uladzimir Valodzin

Janka Kaškiel: An Accomplice in Crimes or the Victim of Two Dictatorships? The Fate of a Caricaturist in the Service of the Stalinist and Nazi Regimes 351

Lars Olof Larsson

Merry Town Planning (Fröhliche Neugestaltung): Humorous Comments on the Reshaping of Berlin during the Nazi Period 371

Gregory Maertz

The Last Taboo: The Postwar Rehabilitation of Nazi Artists 387

List of Figures 412

About the Authors 428

Index 435